A Gray day - raining but it is quite warm. The hills are heather in the pockets - very much of Nature has its own particular beauty - today's Gray Skies Gray hills - must come with a suggestion of color when the blue trees & brown thrusts - is very lovely -

My door bell ringing has not been a fainter recognition I don't I believe - in German cases - Rain sent me back to the car for shelter -

He has paid the car company - three dollars to meet - he doesn't like to complain but he expects me to do something about it - Guess he's loyal to the old house rises up in my heart - Still his I realize there has been a mistake & that yet he is so something about it - at the same time that I am assuming him that he won't lose his 300 in receipt planning to get some goods & him to keep his food will & to keep him living the cheap - If there is a future in the old company - I'll have one friend & so to the problem here is where to get 300 to buy some soap for him.
